Event Overview

Jawani, is the Punjabi term referring to the youthful days of ones life. Jawani 2K8 is an event for South Asian youths in which they will perform the original folk dance of Punjab: Bhangra.

This year's competition will feature 6 international teams, who will compete for the top three awards, which will be awarded to the teams that display a varied and vivid array of dances and also show connection between the roots of Punjab and themselves and express there love for their culture by performing the dance of Bhangra. After the completion of the performances, the audience gets to join in for open dance floor dancing as the after party of Jawani 2K8.

Since this is the 5th year the Jawani Culture Show has been running locally, the organizers have decided to make Jawani 2K8 an international event with teams coming from all around the world to compete. The after party will include live performances by a few of the top well known singers in the South Asian Community. You will be sure to make the right choice when become apart of Jawani 2K8 ... believe the hype, because Jawani Only Comes Once!!!

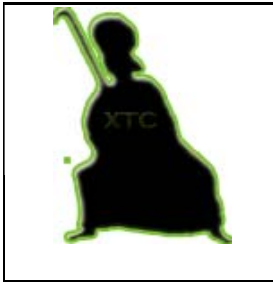

Event Outline

This year, Jawani 2K8 Bhangra Competition will be over a two day span for performers. All competing performers/teams are required to sign into the official event hotel on the Thursday prior to the event. Teams will be given practice space at the hotel on Thursday. Sign in will commence on Thursday and a 'Meet & Greet' event will be held later that evening.

On the day of the event, practice space at the hotel will be allotted to competing teams. Teams are expected to be at the venue no later then 5:45 pm as the show will begin promptly at 7:00 pm. There will be a shuttle bus running from the hotel to the venue prior to the show and after the event to transport performers to and form the venue.

ALL PERFORMING TEAMS ARE REQUIRED TO CHECK INTO THE HOTEL ON THE THURSDAY BEFORE THE EVENT AND CHECKOUT ON THE MONRING AFTER THE EVENT, UNLESS FURTHER ARRANGEMENTS HAVE BEEN MADE WITH THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE!!!
